ALONZO GARCELON.

The venerable ex-Governor, Alonzo Garcelon, chairman of the Lewiston Centennial Committee, 1895, was born on the ancestral farm in the central part of the town, May 6, 1813. His father, Colonel William Garcelon, was a prominent citizen, and his mother, Mary (Davis) Garcelon, was a grand-daughter of David Davis.

AUGUSTUS R. TURNER.

Mr. Augustus R. Turner, the publisher of this book, has tried hard to give a brief and correct outline of Lewiston's early history. In his labors he has endeavored to separate truth from error, fact from fiction, as they come down to us from half-forgotten days in legend, tradition and annals of the past.

DAN READ.

Dan Read was born in February, 1766, at Attleborough, Mass. and moved to Lewiston in November, 1788. He married Susannah, daughter of Stephen Hart, of Lewiston. He was one of the first teachers, and taught school for more than thirty years, commencing with the year 1800. In town affairs there was none more prominent, being chosen selectman for twenty-six years, chairman of the board twelve years, town clerk fifteen years, representative to the General Court of Massachusetts, and a representative to the Legislature of Maine in 1830 and several subsequent years. He was the first postmaster in Lewiston. Mr. Read had eight sons and five daughters. He died February 15, 1854, at the age of eighty-seven.
